1 (The following proceedings were held outside the hearing
2 and presence of the Jury.)

3 MR. WALLACE: First thing to do on the record is one
4 objection that they have remaining to Daniel Maestas, the
5 doctor, her treating physician. I've tabbed a page here,
6 which is page 61, lines 19 through 25.

7 THE COURT: Is this the situational anxiety guy?

8 MR. TILLOTSON: Yes, Your Honor. I just want to put 9 on the record my objection to it.

10 THE COURT: Yeah. Okay. You're objecting to his 11 diagnosis and the causation issue of situational anxiety?

12 MR. TILLOTSON: Correct, Your Honor, and I just want
13 to add also that we renew our objection that the doctor should 14 be required to be testifying live. I know you previously 15 ruled.

16 THE COURT: I did. I overruled that objection.

17 MR. TILLOTSON: I want to make that prior to his 18 deposition.

19 THE COURT: Fair enough.

20 MR. TILLOTSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: And anything else on the doctor's 22 testimony? Just you want to, obviously, stick with your 23 objection with the situational anxiety. I think I ruled on 24 that on a motion in limine, and I'll stick with that ruling.

25 MR. TILLOTSON: Thank you, Your Honor. That's it.

1 THE COURT: All right. Thank you for bringing it up.

2 MR. WALLACE: The only other issue doesn't need to be
3 on the record.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 (An off-the-record discussion was held in open court
6 outside the hearing and presence of the Jury.)

7 (The following proceedings were held in open court.)

8 MR. TILLOTSON: Your Honor, Jeff Tillotson on behalf
9 of Nationstar, the Defendant. We would move the Court for 10 reconsideration of the motion in limine filed by Plaintiff
11 that was granted barring any mention of settlement
12 negotiations, mediation, or the fact of settlement under Rule
13 408. We'd ask the Court to allow us to put on two bits of 14 evidence from our witness, corporate rep, Mr. Loll. The first 15 is that Nationstar attempted to resolve this dispute with the 16 Plaintiff prior to this court proceeding here today, and 17 second, that the parties --

18 THE COURT: When you say "prior," are you talking
19 after the lawsuit was filed?

20 MR. TILLOTSON: After the lawsuit was filed but 21 before the trial today.

22 THE COURT: Let me -- okay. So let me -- I want to 23 get this straight. I heard yesterday -- don't -- you guys,
24 you've lived with this case for a couple of years, and I have 25 not. Well, I have, but not to the extent that you have, and I

1 heard yesterday from -- I guess in opening statement -- from 2 the Plaintiff that it wasn't until March of 2015 that the 3 Defendants -- the Defendant finally acknowledged that they had
4 made this error. Is that accurate?

5 MR. TILLOTSON: No, Your Honor. There was 6 acknowledgment in letters to her in 2014, both in May and
7 October, that errors had been made on her account. I think it
8 wasn't until May 2015 when all errors were fixed in connection
9 with Mr. Loll being deposed.

10 THE COURT: Okay. So my question -- I asked that 11 question to follow up with your request. Tell me when 12 Mr. Loll came to the Plaintiff and, I guess, her attorney. By 13 that time, he would have had to go to the lawyers.

14 MR. TILLOTSON: Mediations. We had to. The Court
15 ordered us to go to mediation.

16 THE COURT: Oh, the mediation. Yeah. If you're 17 asking for me to allow you to get into Court-ordered
18 mediation, that's -- I'll stick with my ruling that that's 19 going to be excluded.

20 MR. TILLOTSON: May I just say that we made an effort
21 to settle or resolve the dispute outside of this courtroom
22 today? Because the Jury may be wondering, "All right. You
23 said you made a mistake. You said you fixed it. Have you
24 done anything to help her or offer anything about it?" And by 25 the time that took place, we were in litigation and we were

1 under Court order to go to mediation, which is the vehicle we
2 have to do it. I won't mention the word "mediation."

3 THE COURT: Boy, I've never heard of that ever coming
4 in in a trial in my experience. It would -- I -- I could -- I
5 could see it on the other side, and maybe not in this case,
6 but where some sort of a nuisance value offer has been made by
7 the Defendant. You certainly wouldn't -- the Plaintiff
8 certainly wouldn't be allowed to let that in, and your offer
9 may be substantial. I don't know anything about whatever
10 offer you guys made, but I think I'd be on real dangerous
11 ground with the Court of -- I'm sure you're objecting to this?

12 MR. WALLACE: Absolutely, Your Honor. I agree. I
13 think we open a Pandora's box, and exactly what the rule is 14 there for is to -- I mean --

15 THE COURT: Yeah.

16 MR. TILLOTSON: May I? I don't want to get into any 17 offer that was made or the dollar amount or the vehicle it was 18 done through, which is mediation, but just that Nationstar did 19 make an effort to resolve this dispute with her, and the 20 reason I would ask it is that they have -- in opening -- have 21 said we didn't listen; we didn't get it; we didn't fix it
22 until May of 2015 when in fact we had sought to resolve it
23 with her prior to May of 2015 through mediation.

24 THE COURT: I understand your argument, and I
25 understand why you want it in, and there's a little bit of me

1 that understands that more in this case than in others
2 because, quite frankly, if the evidence continues to come in
3 like this, I haven't seen a thing going right from your side
4 yet. So I mean --

5 MR. TILLOTSON: It's coming. It's coming.

6 THE COURT: Yeah. Well, it would have to. Those two
7 witnesses were amazing. It makes me want to go home and check
8 my mortgage, but at any rate, the -- I think if I start
9 letting you all get into the settlement discussions -- and 10 that's what you're talking about here -- that's -- I would be 11 on dangerous ground. I tell every jury after the trial is 12 over that the reason we tried this case is because the parties
13 couldn't resolve the case, they tried to settle it and they 14 couldn't, and that's why there was a trial, but I certainly 15 don't think that's something -- that may be some common sense
16 things they're thinking about now, but it's nothing we're 17 letting in evidence. So I'll stick with my ruling. Your 18 motion is denied.

19 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. I just want to make a brief
20 offer of proof that if allowed we would offer into evidence
21 that Nationstar attempted to resolve this dispute with Ms. May 22 in both December of 2014 and again in the summer of 2015 but 23 that the parties were unsuccessful in that.

24 THE COURT: Yeah, but, again, this is after the 25 lawsuit is filed. This is not -- you didn't try to resolve

1 this before somebody filed a lawsuit against you.

2 MR. TILLOTSON: Correct, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: And isn't that the purpose of the rule?

4 MR. TILLOTSON: Yeah. Well, no. The purpose of the 5 rule is to -- is actually, to protect me, that the jury
6 wouldn't think I'm liable because I offered her money, and so
7 I'm not offering it to show liability because I've effectively
8 said we screwed up. What I'm offering it to show is rebut the 9 Plaintiff's case, which is "You don't care. You've never 10 tried to help her. You've never tried to fix this until very 11 late in the game." That's why I'm offering it. It's really 12 in response to what they did, and that's why I'm seeking to 13 offer it.

14 THE COURT: Okay. I'll stick with my ruling.

15 MR. TILLOTSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Anything else?

17 MR. WALLACE: The only other thing is I'd move for 18 admission -- but I think you probably want me to do that in 19 front of the Jury -- of some exhibits that were dealt with 20 yesterday.

21 THE COURT: You don't really have to, you know,
22 before the Jury. I didn't keep track of any of those because 23 I didn't really --

24 MR. WALLACE: Understood.

25 THE COURT: It's hard from a deposition standpoint.

1 MR. WALLACE: Yes.

2 THE COURT: I don't know what you guys are talking
3 about. So at the end of your case, what I would suggest we do
4 is let's go -- between me and the deputy clerk and you, we'll 5 go through each exhibit -- and the Defendants certainly to 6 agree -- that every exhibit you've attempted to introduce has 7 been actually viewed by a witness.

8 MR. WALLACE: Okay.

9 THE COURT: Make sure we're all on the same page, and 10 if at some point you want to make an announcement in front of 11 the jury, you certainly can do that.

12 MR. WALLACE: Yes. And I did speak with counsel
13 about doing this this way.

14 THE COURT: Yeah.

15 MR. WALLACE: And we have an agreement as to which 16 ones could come in at this point.

17 THE COURT: So --

18 MR. WALLACE: But if you want -- I prefer -- whatever
19 you want me to do, I'll do.

20 THE COURT: Yeah, we'll just -- we'll make -- again,
21 I don't have a -- I understand why a party would want the Jury
22 to hear that exhibits are coming in, and we'll do that in 23 front of them, but we really need to do that informally ahead
24 of time to make sure that we're all on the same page, and now
25 that I know this, when you were talking to your witnesses

1 about -- the witnesses that are being videotaped -- about
2 exhibits, are they the same numbers that you're using here?

3 MR. WALLACE: They're close, but what I thought I
4 would do is -- in the list here, it tells which depo
5 exhibit -- I think a cross-reference, if we prepared a chart
6 that said this is trial exhibit; this is depo exhibit.

7 THE COURT: Yeah. Right. Well, I'm not going to 8 keep track then because --

9 MR. WALLACE: I'll do it.

10 THE COURT: -- there are two different numbers. You
11 need to keep track.

12 MR. WALLACE: I'll do it.

13 THE COURT: And at the end of it, well, hopefully,
14 you and the Defendants are on the same page.

15 MR. WALLACE: Yes, yes.

16 MR. TILLOTSON: I don't have a problem with that.

17 THE COURT: And the Defendants have the same -- can 18 do the same thing.

19 MR. WALLACE: Thank you.

20 THE COURT: All right. Guys, thanks. Is there
21 anything else?

22 MR. WALLACE: No, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. All right.

24 (Court recessed from 8:51 a.m. until 9:11 a.m.)

25 (The following proceedings were held within the hearing

1 and presence of the Jury.)

2 THE COURT: Okay. Morning, ladies and gentlemen.

3 JURORS IN UNISON: Morning.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Wallace, are you ready to 5 proceed?

6 MR. WALLACE: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: You may.

8 MR. WALLACE: Next witness is going to be Andrea
9 Kimbuta.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. WALLACE: And the deposition video trial
12 testimony here is about an hour and one minute, I believe.

13 THE COURT: Great. Thank you.

14 (Video deposition of Andrea Kimbuta played.)

15 MR. WALLACE: Next witness, Your Honor, will be Paul
16 Muller, an employee of Nationstar, and it will last 21
17 minutes, I think.

18 THE COURT: Are we okay for that, folks? Do you want 19 a break? Okay. We'll do that and then take a break after 20 that. Okay.

21 (Video deposition of Paul Muller played.)

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Okay. Ladies and 23 gentlemen, we're going to take a break. Again, you're 24 instructed not to discuss the case. Don't form or express any 25 opinions about the case. Don't let anyone discuss the case in

1 your presence. We'll bring you back in about 15 minutes.

2 Thank you.

3 (Court recessed from 10:32 a.m. until 10:51 a.m.)

4 (The following proceedings were held within the hearing
5 and presence of the Jury.)

6 THE COURT: Okay. You may proceed.

7 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, our next witness will be
8 the corporate representative for Nationstar, Mr. A.J. Loll,
9 the first segment, and this one is two hours and 45 minutes.
10 That will take us through the morning.

11 THE COURT: Yeah. We're going to break a little bit
12 before noon. I have a criminal matter literally at noon, so
13 I'm going to get you guys out of here, so I can take that, and 14 we'll break for lunch. Okay. Thanks.

15 (Video deposition of Andrew J. Loll played.)

16 THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, this might be a decent time
17 to break. I'm sorry to interrupt the depo, but anyway, we 18 have to do it at some point, I suppose. We're going to take 19 our lunch break. I'm going to have you back. I'm going to 20 try to be done with everything I've got and grab something to 21 eat and be back here by 1:00. So if you all would do that, it
22 would be helpful. Again, you're instructed not to discuss the 23 case. Don't form or express any opinions about the case.
24 Don't let anyone discuss the case in your presence.

25 Counsel, before we break, is there a specific time

1 you want me to read this stipulation?

2 MR. TILLOTSON: Just with the rest of the
3 stipulations. Maybe at the end of the case.

4 THE COURT: Fair enough.

5 MR. WALLACE: That's good.

6 THE COURT: Yes. Good. And you all can leave.
7 You're excused. I'm sorry. Go ahead.

8 (Court recessed for lunch from 11:50 a.m. until 1:04p.m.)

9 (The following proceedings were held within the hearing
10 and presence of the Jury.)

11 THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, you may continue with the 12 deposition of Mr. Loll.

13 MR. WALLACE: Thank you.

14 (Video deposition of Andrew J. Loll played.)

15 MR. WALLACE: Next installment.

16 THE COURT: Thanks.

17 (Video deposition of Andrew J. Loll played.)

18 THE COURT: Is that it?

19 MR. WALLACE: No, not for him. We've got a little 20 bit more, but I don't know if you want to start it.

21 THE COURT: How much are you -- define "a little."

22 MR. WALLACE: 1:23.

23 THE COURT: I think I can handle another 23. All
24 right.

25 MR. WALLACE: An hour and 23.

1 THE COURT: Oh. Of this witness?

2 MR. WALLACE: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I thought you were -- oh, I
4 got it. All right. We'll take a break.

5 Ladies and gentleman, you're instructed not to 6 discuss the case. Don't form or express any opinions about 7 the case. Don't let anyone discuss the case in your presence.
8 We'll call you back in about 15 or 20 minutes. Twenty 9 minutes.

10 (Court recessed from 2:52 p.m. until 3:12 p.m.)

11 (The following proceedings were held within the hearing
12 and presence of the Jury.)

13 THE COURT: Okay. These breaks go short, don't they?
14 Doesn't seem like 20 minutes to me. Damn it.

15 All right. We will -- Mr. Wallace, are you ready to 16 go with your next witness?

17 MR. HUMPHREYS: Yes, Your Honor. We are going to 18 call Mr. Loll live and dispense with the recording in an 19 effort to speed this along.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Loll, you want to step forward 21 and be sworn in.

22 (Witness sworn.)

23 THE COURT: Mr. Loll, do me a favor and get closer to 24 that microphone. It's a little inconvenient.

25 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: There you go. Thank you.

2 THE WITNESS: Is that better?

3 THE COURT: I think so. Thank you.

4 You may proceed, Mr. Humphreys.

5 ANDREW J. LOLL,

6 HAVING BEEN FIRST DULY SWORN, WAS EXAMINED AND TESTIFIED AS 7 FOLLOWS:

8 DIRECT EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. HUMPHREYS:

10 Q Well, Mr. Loll, I feel like I already know you, but would 11 you mind introducing yourself to the Jury for us, please?

12 A My name is A.J. Loll. I'm a vice president with 13 Nationstar Mortgage. Been there for 15 years. I'm currently 14 in the position of Vice President of Litigation Support.

15 Q Thank you. Sir, if I understand your company's position,
16 your belief is that you made -- there was some human error
17 here? Just a simple mistake is how this whole thing started?

18 A I wouldn't categorize them as simple mistakes. They're 19 pretty serious mistakes from -- from -- when you look at the 20 whole picture, these weren't minor mistakes. These were 21 mistakes that had major impact.

22 Q I guess human error is what I was getting at.

23 A Yes, there was human error mistakes.

24 Q Okay. And I get that. People make mistakes. Human 25 beings are capable of doing that. What I want to focus on is

1 what's going on at Nationstar and why it took so long for
2 these mistakes to get identified and fixed. Don't you see a
3 bigger problem here than simple human error? Excuse me. If 4 you don't like the word "simple", don't you see something
5 going on here that's bigger than just human error?

6 A Part of my role as litigation support is based on my 7 years of experience with the company, and I've been an 8 executive in almost every part of servicing, and you're right.
9 There is a bigger picture here, and what I took away from my 10 investigation of this account, my interview with employees and 11 managers, and department procedures, there is more than just a 12 simple mistake. I recognize we have to do a better job at 13 training our -- our SPOCs that also talked to Ms. May, and 14 they need to understand what their roles are. We have to do a
15 better job at escalating a situation like Ms. May so a vice 16 president gets involved. Vice presidents have a lot more
17 authority. Even if they think that the borrower is wrong,
18 vice presidents have the financial authority to do adjustments
19 up to 6,000 or even up to $10,000. If we review the history
20 and we feel that in the customer's eyes they truly believe
21 they're right, we can make an executive decision at our level
22 to just fix it, and we need to do a better job of escalation.
23 We need to do a better job, and we've addressed some of our 24 deficiencies that I identified through my investigation. How 25 monies are requested from prior servicers -- I feel like we've

1 locked that down. We also put measures in place and
2 procedures that if money is to be adjusted off of an account,
3 it's generated by a vice president or higher to the cash
4 management group, and the cash management group sends a
5 response to that person where you approve it, and they send 6 another response that it's been completed. So you have at 7 least an officer level or above reviewing situations like
8 Ms. May. You wouldn't have had bankruptcy specialist to 9 bankruptcy specialist. That would have required either the 10 Senior Vice President of Bankruptcy or the Vice President of 11 Bankruptcy to review that transaction, and I would have hoped 12 that they would have rejected doing any adjustments to 13 anyone's account because the accounts had been seasoned for 14 years. The logistics of trying to notify all those customers
15 of all those changes and explain to them -- for $6,000
16 approximately, it would have been much easier just to write a
17 check out of our own expenses just to reimburse if the trustee
18 was looking for reimbursement or if other accounts needed
19 reimbursed, but, yeah, I saw bigger pictures. Yes, it was 20 human error, but those human errors that I identify in my 21 procedures, I make policy changes, and I try to make our 22 company a better servicer tomorrow than we were yesterday.

23 Q Okay. Well, what I'm trying to get at here is that it's 24 more than just human error. There are conscious business
25 choices being made here to deliberately save money and not

1 provide the level of service that is necessary to prevent this
2 situation from taking place; isn't that true?

3 A I would disagree. Can you give me an example of where
4 you're -- where you're directing that? We're cutting areas
5 to -- to --

6 Q Well, okay. Sure. I'd be happy to share that with you.
7 Now, your lawyer came in here and gave a very clear opening
8 statement that you made some mistakes and the mistakes that 9 were identified that were going to be fixed so that this will,
10 quote, "never happen again" were, one, having a vice president
11 in cash approve certain transactions and, two, having a vice 12 president in bankruptcy approve certain transactions. Isn't
13 that true?

14 A In addition, we --

15 Q Isn't that what he said the fixes were that needed to be 16 put in place to make sure this never happens again? Isn't
17 that true?

18 A No. What the -- the case of Jeannie May involves more --

19 Q Are you answering my question?

20 A You're asking me, "Isn't that true?"

21 Q Isn't that what your lawyer said in opening statement?
22 Yes or no?

23 A No, no, he didn't. He brought up -- he showed you
24 screens because part of the issues were the -- how we recorded
25 credit report --

1 Q Okay. We're focusing on what your lawyer said in opening
2 statements. Stay with me.

3 A He did. He did. He showed the check first. Then he
4 showed the things that we erred when we tried to resolve it.
5 He also showed credit, the credit reporting, because Ms. May 6 had issues with her credit reporting. So there was more than 7 just that issue of the check that he gave in his opening
8 statement. He gave a slide show that incorporated all the 9 areas that we felt needed to be addressed.

10 Q So the answer is no; credit reporting was also raised in 11 the opening statement? Is that your testimony?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And the credit reporting was, "We made an error in 14 judgment. We should not have made the credit reporting worse.
15 Going forward, we're not going to do that." That was what was 16 said. Is that true?

17 A At the minimal, you would not make credit reporting
18 worse.

19 Q Fair enough. Okay. But the three topics were the 20 bankruptcy department, credit reporting, and cash, cash
21 department. Isn't that true? That's what the procedure
22 changes were?

23 A There was more changes. We also --

24 Q Well, tell me what your lawyer said in opening statement
25 when he came out here to tell his story, your story, and say

1 to this Jury, "We're making these changes here. We've made
2 some mistakes." Let me ask you this. Did you hear your
3 lawyer say anything about more training for the front line
4 operations folks or anything of -- anything about the front
5 line operators engaging in better communication or better
6 training?

7 A I didn't hear my attorney, but I did tell my attorney
8 that I personally do training for all our new hires that come
9 into the company and use parts of this case to address it with 10 them of how you need to escalate situations. I did share that 11 with my attorney. I did share with my attorney that we have 12 coding now placed on loans so that when Ms. May has an issue
13 with a particular rep it can be routed to a manager or an AVP
14 or a VP. We have that in our coding. It may not have been in 15 our opening statements, but it is part of today's culture.
16 These are items and initiatives that I put in place after my 17 investigations, being deposed last year.

18 Q Last year?

19 A When we did the deposition.

20 Q May --

21 A May of --

22 Q Of 2015?

23 A -- 2015.

24 Q Four months ago?

25 A This year, 2015.

1 Q All right. And did you make any mention of there being
2 any changes in communications or escalations in the frontline
3 operatives who speak to borrowers in your deposition?

4 A Can you be more specific? I'm not following your
5 question.

6 Q Yeah. I mean you're here telling this Jury that -- I
7 mean what I see the problem is -- is that there's not enough
8 communication going on and there's not adequate training on 9 the front lines so that they can take care of people like her.
10 They just look at the screen and say what -- repeat whatever
11 it says. Does that sound fair to you that that's what was 12 going on here at the time these folks were dealing with my 13 client?

14 A That's what they were seeing, but there's a bigger
15 problem than that. The problem is --

16 Q Okay. Well, let's talk about the problem just a moment.

17 A Okay.

18 Q So is it your testimony for this Jury that you didn't
19 know -- even though the recording is being made, you didn't
20 know until we asked you for testimony that this was a problem
21 at Nationstar? Are you saying that you did not know until you
22 listened to the recordings to prepare to give legal testimony
23 in a lawsuit that these were issues at Nationstar?

24 A There was issues in this case, but you're saying issues
25 at Nationstar.

1 Q Yeah, issues about the way people --

2 A One's interpreting --

3 Q -- issues about the way people are being treated when
4 they aren't past due but the system says they are and you go
5 ahead and treat them as delinquents. Was that not to your
6 knowledge? I mean you had to have this lady file a lawsuit,
7 and you had to read and get ready for a depo, prepare yourself
8 before there were any changes made. Right?

9 A I understand where you're going.

10 Q Is that true?

11 A But if you could let me respond.

12 Q Is it true? Is it true?

13 A If you could let me respond.

14 Q It's kind of a yes or no question. Is it true?

15 A We had an issue.

16 Q Is it true?

17 A Repeat your question again. I'll try to give you a true
18 or false.

19 Q Okay. Are you saying that you did not know that there
20 was an issue with the way borrowers were being treated that 21 requires this more training you're now telling us about here,
22 even though your lawyer didn't? You didn't know about that 23 until she filed this lawsuit; is that right?

24 A Are you using "issue as singular or plural?

25 Q I'm referring to however you characterize the things that

1 need to be addressed on the front lines of Nationstar when
2 they're talking to borrowers.

3 A This issue was singular from my review, and the 4 frustration on all parties, including ours, because I was 5 sympathy (sic) to our employees also in addition to Ms. May.

6 Q So you did know about it before then is what you're 7 telling us? You've always known this or what?

8 A No. I said --

9 Q You never knew then? Which is it?

10 MR. TILLOTSON: I'm sorry. I'm just going to object.
11 Let the witness answer.

12 THE COURT: I would agree. Sustained.

13 Q (By Mr. Humphreys) Please try to answer my question, and 14 I won't try to repeat myself.

15 A When I went to do the deposition in May of 2015 -- and I
16 put it on record -- I interviewed employees. I went through 17 procedures and policies. Part of my role at the company is to 18 make changes. At one time with the company, I wrote our 19 policies and procedures. Things change, and how things change
20 is when you write a policy or procedure you try to imagine all
21 events that could take place and then you write them, and then
22 you have to adjust them because sometimes events slip through 23 the cracks or some other event happens that makes you -- that 24 I need to address this so it doesn't happen again. In this 25 particular case, Ms. May was always with our SPOCs, and that

1 is not where she should have been on a communication with.

2 Our SPOCs -- just so you know what a SPOC is, it's a single
3 point of contact, but it's a single point of contact as it
4 relates to the CFPB rulings that state that if an account is 5 45 days past due the servicer has to assign a point of 6 contact. The point of contact is identified as a person who 7 has vast knowledge on loss mitigation, not research. Our 8 research people, we train. They're -- they're trained to look
9 at all the transactions, accounting transactions, preboarding
10 information. Example like this was the pre- and post-petition
11 payments, but Ms. May is on the phone talking to our SPOCs, 12 who their number one skill sets are workouts. That problem is 13 not going to get fixed until we either get this problem to a
14 VP or get it to bankruptcy who understands what went down with 15 the transaction from the Jeanne Hoyt situation. The problem
16 isn't empowering the three loss mitigation people. They would 17 have been fine if they were really talking to a borrower who 18 was three to four months delinquent. They were approaching it
19 to save their properties. They're given work queues to call
20 because every one of those calls, they reach someone, and to 21 get a financial package, that's one customer who may not lose
22 their house to foreclosure.

23 Q Do you remember my question?

24 A Your question is, was I aware of the issue. I was aware
25 of the issue on this case. I was not aware that we had a

1 routing problem with a situation like Jeannie May. I would
2 have thought why didn't it -- why didn't the AVP get on the 3 phone, why didn't VP get on the phone because he could have 4 the authority to simply address her needs, authorize a check,
5 bring her current, and move on.

6 The frustration part was the same employees kept routing
7 in a circular back to Ms. May and they kept using the same
8 assumption that they were trying to look at the arrearage that 9 was somewhat recent, that she was four or five payments down.
10 Ms. May was proving that she made those payments. That's the 11 disconnect. The disconnect wasn't those five payments. The 12 disconnect was 2008 payments that were taken off the account
13 from 2008 before Nationstar even became the servicer. That's 14 vastly more complex than "You've just missed these last five 15 payments." But when you apply payments in mortgage servicing 16 and you remove them, you don't report to a customer, "You're 17 due for December of 2015, but you owe for three payments from 18 2013." It works in consecutive order, which means if you take 19 those three payments off in December of '13, it's going to 20 bring accounts due three payments up to wherever you were 21 contractually due before that adjustment. That was the 22 confusion. That was the disconnect. The call needed to be 23 directed to either a vice president, or it had to go back to 24 bankruptcy.

25 Q Are you saying it was a complicated problem?

1 A It was complex. It wasn't beyond resolution. If it
2 would have just simply -- one person. I needed a hero
3 somewhere along the line, someone who could read the notes and
4 put two and two together. Unfortunately, we didn't get a hero
5 in that sequence of employees.

6 Q Does it take a hero to read your notes?

7 A No. It does take knowledge. Because when I interviewed
8 the individuals that she talked to, it was Caroline, and I
9 forget the -- the other employee. Not Nance but the other
10 employee. They had all the good intentions. They were in my 11 office, and I went through and showed them how easy it would 12 have been to figure out Jeannie May's problem. It's two 13 clicks would have brought in the customer service screens. It
14 would have brought in the research screens and the bankruptcy
15 screens, and it's right there in front of you. When they were 16 responding back, they didn't access those screens. They were 17 only accessing the collection communication screens, and this 18 was a research/bankruptcy matter situation. If they just 19 would have known how to do that.

20 Now, what I did -- I checked with everyone in the 21 department. I went to every one of their managers, VPs, SVPs.
22 I said, "Does everyone in your department know how to do
23 this?" And all the managers said yes. All the VPs said yes.
24 But I did get back to managers, though, that said I will
25 implement to make sure every one of my people knows how to do

1 this so that we don't ever have this situation again because
2 sometimes you assume people know what they're doing until you
3 actually talk to them and then you realize I need more
4 training for this individual, and that's what I found out.
5 They needed more training on how to handle it. It wasn't --
6 it wasn't that difficult. It was complex, but it wouldn't 7 have been that difficult to figure out.

8 Q So why is it that you don't have your frontline employees
9 at Nationstar able to speak to the research department or 10 email them even?

11 A They can as of today. In -- the second individual that 12 you put on that was deposed -- I think it was Nance. She says
13 in SharePoint you can drop down and you can put the issues in 14 and you put a checkmark in, and the checkmark says, "Please
15 update your information," on our screen so that you can see
16 it, but some of the comments were already there on Caroline.
17 She just didn't know how to read them, and Nance didn't know
18 how to access them. They were there. So the process did
19 work. You could see that they were working the issues in 20 research, and they were working it relatively quickly from the 21 time that it was identified.

22 Q So do you think these three folks that we saw testify
23 here that just happened to work on this one account -- were 24 they rogue employees in the sense of not being trained like 25 everybody else?

1 A My interpretation -- and I talked to them -- was how many
2 accounts do you get in your queue on a daily basis where a
3 customer says, "I made a payment, and you didn't post it," and 4 in every case that I reviewed, it was relative early -- it was 5 recent. It was, "I sent you last payment." Maybe it had the 6 wrong digit of account number, and then research could find it
7 and populate the notes. That's the normal part of research.
8 This case -- think about it. This case -- we were asked from 9 Citi to remove payments from 2008 that were overpaid by a
10 trustee and do account adjustments to a second-line servicer
11 and do all those retro adjustments.

12 THE COURT: You know, I hate to interrupt here, but 13 can we do a question and answer format?

14 MR. HUMPHREYS: I was trying to get that down
15 earlier.

16 THE COURT: Well, you're not really doing it. So you
17 have to ask a question. You have to answer it. We really 18 don't want speeches. Answer the question. You ask the 19 question. We'll be here all day.

20 Q (By Mr. Humphreys) Okay. That's what I was thinking. I
21 was hoping we'd speed this thing along. So if you -- I'll try
22 to ask you a direct question. If you can give me a direct
23 answer, that will make things go a little quicker here.

24 A I will.

25 Q Is it your testimony then that there are flaws in the

1 research department, they were just unknown, and now they're
2 going to be fixed because of this, what you've seen here?

3 A Re --

4 Q I should say flaws in the ability of the front-line
5 operators to communicate with research.

6 A We have procedures in place to get better response.
7 Obviously, you're always going to have to always improve your
8 research group to handle unusual situations that you don't 9 even know that may exist that will come to you.

10 Q Wasn't this as simple as the employees being able to go
11 through the history, the front-line operators being able to go
12 through the history and see the March 27th transaction?

13 A No. They would have needed --

14 Q Have you ever said that that was the case?

15 A They would have needed to see both.

16 Q Excuse me. Have you ever testified under oath that that 17 was the case?

18 A If I did, I only left half the answer. Yes, you could --

19 Q Let's take a look and see --

20 A Yes, you could see it.

21 Q -- if I'm being fair to you.

22 A But it confirms it in the note on the same system.

23 Q Do you care? Does it matter to you if you gave testimony
24 that was inaccurate previously in this action, in this case?

25 A I don't believe I did.

1 Q Do you want to take a look at it then?

2 A Sure.

3 MR. TILLOTSON: Your Honor, before we publish it, can
4 he at least have a chance to see it so they can --

5 THE COURT: It's a deposition. Are you contesting
6 that it's this witness' deposition?

7 MR. TILLOTSON: Could I just get a page and line
8 cite?

9 THE COURT: Oh, yes. Absolutely. Absolutely.

10 MR. HUMPHREYS: Page 200, 4 to 13.

11 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

12 MR. TILLOTSON: Say it one more time.

13 MR. HUMPHREYS: Page 200, lines 4 to 13.

14 THE COURT: Hang on for a second. Let counsel find 15 it. You okay over there?

16 MR. TILLOTSON: I am, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

18 Q (By Mr. Humphreys) Did you say that what should have 19 happened -- you don't have to necessarily fax in the 20 documents --

21 A Wait a second. I'm only seeing my answer. I don't see
22 the question.

23 Q Okay. Does that help? Do you think the question will 24 help you understand what you testified to?

25 A Yeah, because I like to know that I'm answering the same

1 question that you're asking me today.

2 Q Oh, well, not necessarily. I'm just asking if you've
3 ever said that this was something that was as simple as having 4 an employee read the collection screens, the history.

5 A Yes, but you didn't say --

6 Q Did you ever say that?

7 A I said collection screens. You asked me about
8 transaction screens. That's why I was referring back.

9 Q Well, it says --

10 A You would want to look at the collection screens and 11 transaction screen.

12 Q Well, it just says, "It was our employees should have 13 been able to identify the March 27th transaction by looking 14 through the history."

15 A Yes. If they look at just the collection history, that's 16 all they need. That's all they would need to do.

17 Q Okay. And that wasn't done here?

18 A That wasn't done here because they didn't know how to 19 access it.

20 Q And is it your testimony that the employees knew to do
21 that, they just didn't, or what?

22 A The employees knew to do it. They just -- and they did
23 it on the transactions that they could view. They didn't know
24 how to view screens that they didn't have access to.

25 Q Okay.

1 A In reality, they did have access to it. They just didn't
2 know how to access it.

3 Q Okay. And they didn't access it because they had too
4 many files, too much responsibilities to get through their 5 call queue; isn't that right?

6 A Absolutely wrong. That's absolutely wrong.

7 Q Okay. You don't think they were overworked then?

8 A No. But it takes the same amount of time to review this
9 screen as I would in my normal day-to-day operations in loss
10 mitigation. It's one keypunch that brings it up. It doesn't 11 take more than one keypunch to access those notes.

12 Q Okay. Is it fair to say then as a result of this lawsuit
13 there are no plans at Nationstar to allow the frontline
14 operatives more time to deal with their customers, their 15 borrowers?

16 A Well, you have to define -- when you say frontline, you'd 17 have to be more definitive on what that is.

18 THE COURT: Whoa, whoa, whoa. We know what we're 19 talking about. We're talking about the three ladies who just 20 testified --

21 MR. HUMPHREYS: Right.

22 THE COURT: -- by video. So let's just answer the 23 question.

24 A I understand, but frontline -- well, we're talking about
25 them. They have certain -- they have certain queues.

1 THE COURT: That's what this is all about.

2 A But you talked to people in the 30- to 59-day that have
3 different length queues than loss mit. Loss mit queues are 4 set at 250 accounts. Queues that are -- and one of the girls
5 worked in the zero to 29-day queue. Those have 1,000
6 accounts. So the more delinquent you come and whoever your
7 SPOC is, the accounts that you're having as a SPOC are way
8 down because those accounts are registered as at least three 9 months past due.

10 Q (By Mr. Humphreys) Would you expect that a manager would 11 have been able to detect this problem if they had looked into 12 the system and find out there was an issue, a dispute at 13 least, and be able to follow up and do more research?

14 A I would have expected when Caroline went up to see her
15 manager that the manager should have got on the phone.

16 Q He should have figured it out?

17 A He should have got on the phone with the customer.

18 Q Okay. And that happened at least three times where there
19 was a manager in the account in the summer of 2013, right?

20 A Right. I would have expected the manager to get on the 21 phone.

22 Q Yeah. And that manager instead was looking at whether or 23 not the modification was going forward? That's what he was 24 doing, right?

25 A There's a note that that's what part of his job duties

1 were, but I don't know if that correlates to the same time he
2 was asked to get on the phone.

3 Q Would you like to see? I can show that. Exhibit 2.
4 1821. 21.

5 Okay. Yeah. So is that true that on June 21st, 2013, D.
6 Richardson was in the account, showing it was reviewed by a
7 manager? June 21st, 2013.

8 A No. That's the follow-up. June 20th is the date.
9 That's the date of the comment.

10 Q Okay. Okay. So on June 20th -- thank you. June 20th,
11 2013, we have manager D. Richardson reviewing the file. "See 12 comments." Is that right?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q Let's roll over to the top of 1822, and what he's doing
15 there -- his comment is, "Active trial -- valid hold." In 16 other words, she's in an active trial, so hold the 17 foreclosure. True?

18 A I'm sorry. What line are you looking at?

19 Q The very top line there after the column headers.
20 "Active trial -- valid hold."

21 A Can you drop back to the other because that's cutting it
22 off. Can I see what's on the screen before that page 24?

23 Q That would be the -- yeah. "D. Richardson. Reviewed by 24 manager. See comments." And the comment is "Active trial --
25 valid hold."

1 A Okay. And then page up a little bit. I just want to see
2 the timing of it. Was she on the phone at that same time?
3 Keep going. Because that was at 4:44 in the afternoon. What 4 time did the customer call in?

5 Q Well, we have -- keep rolling up a little bit.

6 A I -- see what I'm looking at is I wanted the manager to 7 engage with the borrower on May 30th at 12:24.

8 Q Uh-huh. That didn't happen, did it?

9 A No. That's when I would have hoped it would happen.

10 Q And he was in the file, looking to see if there was a
11 valid mod -- if there was -- if she was in a trial plan, a
12 modification trial plan, right?

13 A No. He did that the following month. I would have 14 wanted him to get on the phone and talk to Ms. May himself on 15 May 20th.

16 Q If he'd have scrolled up eight or 10 entries, he'd have 17 been able to see the issue, right? When he was in the file, 18 evaluating it to determine that there was a modification in 19 the works.

20 A But it's the timing. I was telling you that I would have 21 wanted the manager to get on the phone at the same time he was 22 talking to Caroline, who was having a problem understanding
23 what was going on, to go get her manager and have her manager
24 talk to Ms. May that moment. You're going days later when 25 he's doing another task. I wanted him to engage with the

1 customer at that particular moment when she was upset.

2 Q So that's what you want. You wanted him to be more
3 proactive in terms of helping people? Is that what you're 4 saying?

5 A I would have expected it because he had access, direct
6 access, to research.

7 Q But he gets a bonus, though, for the number of deals that
8 are made, right, modification deals and other workout options?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q He doesn't get bonus to follow up on customer complaints, 11 does he?

12 A We get assessed on complaint ratios on your department.
13 So he's got skin in the game on issues that his team would 14 have complaints against.

15 Q Does he get bonuses? Those follow-ups on customer
16 complaints -- do those count like deals towards your -- you
17 know, going up the tier to five?

18 A He gets incentives based on improvement of complaints.
19 It's part of his bonus structure as -- as a manager and part
20 of the executive team at Nationstar.

21 Q Okay. And this D. Richardson here -- did he have any 22 other involvement in this account? Do you know? Was he ever
23 her single point of contact?

24 A No. I did talk to D. Richardson as an interview.

25 Q Would this have been after your testimony was given in

1 this case?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay. He was the manager, right?

4 A Correct.

5 Q And he was in this account three separate times over
6 three months in the summer of 2013?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q Okay. And there was some -- a statement by your attorney
9 that -- that Nationstar doesn't make money by having loans in 10 default. Did you recall that statement? By having loans in 11 foreclosure and default?

12 A Yes. It actually costs us money. There's no revenues
13 that are derived on a defaulted loan that we do not cure.

14 MR. HUMPHREYS: Your Honor, I'm going to use this
15 self-authenticating document, Exhibit 215, Nationstar's
16 filing, annual filing, with the Securities and Exchange
17 Commission.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. HUMPHREYS: And if I could direct -- pull up on 20 the page, the top right-hand corner of page 28.

21 MR. TILLOTSON: Oh, I'm sorry. May I interpose an 22 objection?

23 THE COURT: Yeah. Why don't you take it off the 24 screen for a second.

25 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Sorry about that, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: That's okay.

2 MR. TILLOTSON: Can we approach?

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 MR. TILLOTSON: Thank you, Your Honor. I appreciate
5 that.

6 (A bench conference was held on the record and outside of 7 the hearing of the Jury as follows:)

8 MR. TILLOTSON: I had an objection to this. My 9 understanding was they were using this for net worth. If he 10 wants to ask this witness about the net worth, that's fine,
11 but I don't know what else he wants to do with this besides
12 net worth.

13 THE COURT: It sounds like he's going to ask
14 questions about the statement, the financial statement, as it
15 relates to foreclosures.

16 MR. HUMPHREYS: It does say that -- yes, Your Honor.
17 Footnote number 2 here indicates that ancillary revenues,
18 which are 299 million dollars, are composed of late charges,
19 modification fees, and other fees from borrowers and that 20 comparing 2014 versus '13, that there was a primary reason for 21 the decrease in revenues due to ancillary fees, but a
22 secondary reason that's pointed out is "We also saw a decline
23 in ancillary revenue principally due to the continued
24 improvement of the servicing portfolio that resulted in less
25 late fees and similar revenue." So they did -- they're

1 telling their investors they took a financial hit because
2 people are paying their bills.

3 THE COURT: Well, I guess you can ask him about that,
4 but I don't see anything in there about foreclosures.

5 MR. TILLOTSON: I don't. I mean, for starters, we're 6 getting into now --

7 THE COURT: Late fees is different than foreclosures.

8 MR. HUMPHREYS: Well, I said default. You know, it
9 says --

10 THE COURT: Well, your question was: Does -- did
11 your attorney in opening statement argue or state that the 12 company doesn't make any money on foreclosures? And his 13 answer was yes. Then you brought this document out.

14 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. All right. I'll ask some more
15 questions then. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Hold on.

17 MR. TILLOTSON: I want to reurge that if they're 18 going to try and talk globally about all borrowers and that we 19 have a motivation to treat all borrowers a certain way, then I
20 should be allowed to get into the uniqueness of this
21 particular person's circumstance because they are now
22 whipsawing me by saying, "You can't say this was a specific
23 situation, but we get to talk and say this is a global problem
24 based on all borrowers."

25 MR. HUMPHREYS: I'm only talking about financial

1 motive, Your Honor, which goes to bias.

2 THE COURT: Yeah, I see a distinction. I'll see
3 where it goes, but make your objection as it comes along, and 4 I may agree with you, but my point -- I understand what the 5 objection is, but if he can find something in this document
6 that indicates that there is money made by foreclosures, that 7 certainly is in evidence.

8 MR. TILLOTSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 (The following proceedings were held within the hearing
10 of the Jury.)

11 THE COURT: You may proceed.

12 Q (By Mr. Humphreys) So I guess the question on the table
13 for me is: Does Nationstar make money by having borrowers in 14 default?

15 A We do not.

16 Q Okay. You don't get the late fees?

17 A You get late fees if borrowers pay them.

18 Q Okay.

19 A I can go through what really drives the incentives for 20 servicers, but if you do collect a late fee, that's part of 21 our revenue.

22 Q Okay. Let me put up Exhibit 215 and direct your 23 attention to some really kind of complicated accounting stuff,
24 at least for me here. Take a look at Table 6 there, and 25 there's a lot of information we don't need to pay much

1 attention to, but I want to point your attention out to -- to
2 one section here called ancillary revenues there. You see 3 that?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Okay. And it has a footnote 2 there. You see that?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Let's roll down to what footnote 2 says there.

8 THE COURT: You might want to make that bigger.

9 Maybe you can't on that. I'm sorry.

10 THE CLERK: You can do it on the --

11 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay.

12 THE COURT: There you go.

13 Q (By Mr. Humphreys) And ancillary revenues are defined as 14 late charges, mod fees, and other fees collected from 15 borrowers. You see that?

16 A Yes.

17 Q All right. And then roll down here. This comparison of 18 2014 versus '13, and they're describing why there was a
19 decline in revenues from the servicing segment of Nationstar,
20 and what they're talking about there has no application to our 21 case here, but if you go down a little further there, it
22 says -- starting over -- move it this way. I can't see the 23 whole text. You need to, I guess, make it smaller. Okay.
24 Anyway, there's an indication -- 2014 versus '13, there's a
25 revenue decline in servicing, and it's noted here, starting

1 right here, that the decline was partially offset by
2 increases -- I'm sorry. The next line. "We also saw a
3 decline in ancillary revenues, principally due to the 4 continued improvement in the servicing portfolio that resulted
5 in less late fees and similar revenues." Right? So what
6 that's saying right there is that ancillary revenues go down
7 if people perform and their portfolio shows continued
8 improvement, right?

9 A Just for those fees.

10 Q Right.

11 A And I would take those fees lower any day of the week
12 because that means customers are paying, they're current, and 13 we get our premiums based on portfolio performance, and if the 14 customers are current, that's what drives our true revenue.

15 Q Okay. Well, maybe that's in here too. I didn't see it.
16 Maybe your lawyer can bring that up here, but whatever it is,
17 it's significant enough, it's material enough for it to be 18 reported in the 10K that's being provided to their investors,
19 right, explaining why there's a decrease in these ancillary
20 fees because people are paying their bills?

21 A Well, one thing -- you're only -- you're picking one page
22 out of an annual report. You really need to read the whole
23 annual report. It's hard for me to give you a summary when 24 you're giving me one paragraph of page 28.

25 Q All I'm pointing out, sir, is that you do in fact make

1 money off of defaulted borrowers. It's a revenue stream.

2 A But you've got to look at this side. We also have the
3 expenditure side that we don't get reimbursed for that offsets
4 that auxiliary fee. If you take the expense side from 5 foreclosure, you have more in expense than you get in 6 auxiliary fee. It's not a money maker. It may look like you
7 collected fees here, but you have a lot more outgoing expenses
8 in servicing a defaulted loan. They don't pay for one
9 another.

10 Q Okay. Okay. Let's roll up a little bit here. It may 11 not be a lot of money to Nationstar, but what do you see here
12 for 2014 ancillary fees in millions? 333 million dollars?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q Okay. Now, we can pull that down.

15 A I would like to add that also includes prepayment
16 penalties. So when customers refinance because their interest
17 rates go down, the servicer collects prepayment penalties. So
18 the bulk of that is refinancing of customers going into a
19 lower interest rate with another lender, and we get paid off.
20 That's not -- that whole bucket is not late charges.

21 Q Okay.

22 A The late charges are a very small amount in there.

23 Q Okay. I guess it was important enough, though, for them
24 to point that out in the financial statement?

25 A Yeah, because we're vulnerable to when the interest rates

1 go down, customers refinance their loans. If they can get two
2 percent and they're on at four percent and they can find a
3 lender to do two percent, we get paid off. We do get a
4 portion if there's a pre-penalty that can be charged. It's a
5 lump sum. It's a pretty good sized check. That's what's 6 feeding that.

7 Q Okay. Well, for whatever reason, whoever put together
8 this financial statement chose to place a footnote there and 9 indicate that or to explain what the difference in revenues
10 was because of the improving condition of the portfolio, that 11 people were not in default. That's what they said?

12 A Right.

13 Q Okay. Let's talk about this complicated error here.
14 Pull up 56, please. Did you testify -- I believe I saw it on 15 the video; I know you'll correct me if I'm wrong -- that this 16 whole thing started because this was a seasoned debt, an 17 old -- I should say -- a seasoned transfer? From 2008 is when 18 this thing was transferred over, right?

19 A Well, what I'm calling -- when I'm talking about 20 seasoned, I'm talked about the payments were seasoned on the 21 loans.

22 Q Okay.

23 A You're talking about doing account adjustments for 24 customers who paid payments in 2008 and taking it off their 25 accounts in 2012. That's -- that's what I'm concerned about

1 from the seasoning side. The money has already been on there
2 so long; it's not a good idea to remove those monies from 3 those accounts.

4 Q And Citi didn't follow the agreement. They had somebody 5 at a lower level from bankruptcy department reach out to 6 someone they knew presumably in Nationstar's bankruptcy
7 department, and that was outside of the agreement under which 8 Citi transferred those loans to Nationstar. Was that your 9 testimony?

10 A That's my testimony, yes.

11 Q Okay. Let's take a look at this Exhibit 56 here. And 12 we'll start on Nationstar 1725. On the bottom half of the 13 page, please. It's also -- it's been printed as page 18. In 14 fact, go over to the last page of the email, which would be 15 1726 there. Go to the very bottom of the page. And can you
16 confirm for the Jury here that the very last part of the page,
17 1726 there -- roll it up a little bit. I guess down. There's 18 nothing on the last page 19 -- 1726 -- until you get to the 19 very top of the page and we see what looks to be a
20 continuation of the previous -- the earlier page, right? You
21 don't see -- do you see any -- does this appear to you to be 22 the end of an email?

23 A I just see -- my screen just says, "Confidential." I can 24 see the fax number and matt.baxter@nationstarmail.com and then 25 the disclosure.

1 Q All right. Thanks. Roll up to 1725. And does that
2 appear to be the start of this email that we just saw the end
3 of?

4 A I don't know if it's the beginning email. This is like a
5 chain email, so I don't know if I had the very first email,
6 but I can follow with what you're saying to maybe determine
7 it.

8 Q So, I mean, this is the 18th page and the first email.
9 Is it your general experience that emails print in date order
10 first in time to last in time?

11 A I don't know.

12 Q Okay.

13 A I mean I print them, and then I scan them.

14 Q Okay.

15 A It all depends, I guess, on how you put them in your 16 scanner.

17 Q Okay. Well, what's the date of this email?

18 A It looks like it's January 8th of 2013 at 9:38 a.m.,
19 mailed to matt.baxter@nationstarmail.

20 Q Okay. It says "From," right?

21 A Right. It says, "From," but it also says mailed to Matt,
22 Matt Baxter.

23 Q That's his mailing address. It says, "From:
24 matt.baxter@nationstarmail," right?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Is that true?

2 A It just says, "From: matt.Baxter@nationstar.com," and
3 says, "Mailed to: matt.baxter@nationstarmail.com."

4 Q Okay. Do you have any doubt, sir, that this is an email
5 from Matt Baxter Nationstar to Vanessa at Citi?

6 A No. It's going to Citi.

7 Q Okay. From Nationstar?

8 A That's correct. He probably just wants to make sure he 9 gets a copy of it.

10 Q Okay. And he's attaching a bulk check that was sent to 11 Citi in 2008 from the trustee, and he's indicating that he 12 knows that $51 of that amount was supposed to go towards 13 Jeannie K. May's loan, and he includes her loan number, and 14 he's saying, "I didn't ever see that applied to the loan," and 15 he's asking Citi to check to see if the funds were misapplied
16 to a different loan, right?

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q Okay. Let's roll up to the next email. And let's go to 19 1724 where it starts there. And do you see a response there 20 on Friday, January 25th, 2013, to Matt Baxter from Vanessa at 21 Citi?

22 A I do.

23 Q And -- and she's passing along some information about the 24 mistaken posting by Citi of this bulk payment from the trustee
25 to a Jeanne G. Hoyt loan, right?

1 A That's correct.

2 Q And if you roll up there a little bit on the -- I'm
3 sorry -- down -- we'll see Jeannie May's account there ending
4 in 0143, $51, right?

5 A Yes.

6 Q So it looks like -- or let me say it this way. The truth
7 is -- is that Nationstar started this by making contact with 8 Citi about this issue; isn't that true?

9 A It looks like -- and I hope I'm not wrong. It looks like 10 it was identified in our bankruptcy group that there should 11 have been a $51 credit to Jeannie May's account, and we're 12 responding to Citi, who then does a research and says, "Yes, 13 it's part of bulk payments," and lists the whole bulk
14 payments.

15 Q Well, contrary to what you said in your deposition and 16 what I heard in opening, this didn't get started by Citi.
17 Nationstar reached out to Citi about this issue?

18 A I identified the issue as being when it was paid, not the 19 email exchange alone. The issue is how it was paid.

20 Q It was -- I understand you --

21 A The check went to Citi. We paid Citi the check. That's 22 what I was referring to when I was talking about the issue
23 with Citi.

24 Q Well, I understood you to say that -- in your
25 deposition -- that this thing got started in the beginning

1 because Citi reached out at too low of a level; they reached
2 out from bankruptcy to bankruptcy instead of going through
3 acquisition, but the reality is that was Nationstar's
4 bankruptcy department that reached out to Citi. Isn't that
5 true?

6 A That's true.

7 Q Okay. And it was very apparent here as of January of 8 2013 what the deal was with this bulk payment and exactly how 9 much should be applied to and not taken from Jeannie May's
10 account; is that right?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q And this error you've described as complex is essentially
13 someone not reading an email, right? They're not accurately
14 reading the email?

15 A No. It's -- it's -- it's more than that.

16 Q Well, they took -- instead of applying $51 to her, they 17 took out the whole 5,000 plus dollars from her, right?

18 A The error, as I recognized it, is they shouldn't have 19 done any transactions to these accounts. If an amount of 20 money was owed, the servicer should have just cut that check.
21 The money was already seasoned on these individuals' loans for 22 years, and from just a disclosure standpoint, to do all these 23 reversals seems like it would set off a chain of problems,
24 which, obviously, it did.

25 Q Okay.

1 A So it's not the human error of this. It's the human
2 error of this should be directed to acquisitions and legal,
3 and the servicer should just get their checkbook out and just 4 credit the accounts, not take money off of other people's 5 accounts.

6 Q Now, there is -- there is a -- I assume there is a
7 checkbook at Nationstar, but there are also budgets, right,
8 and some department is going to have to step forward and say,
9 "I'll take the hit of this $5,000 out of my budget." Isn't
10 that right? It doesn't just go to the, you know, general
11 checking account ledger balance. It goes to some department.
12 Some department would have to step up and take the hit?

13 A No, not necessarily.

14 Q You'd have to take a book loss, wouldn't you?

15 A You would take a book loss, but since this was a legal
16 situation and it's a legal acquisition, legal has the powers
17 to just write a check that basically spreads that amount
18 across the whole company.

19 Q Okay. But for whatever reason, that didn't happen, did
20 it?

21 A No, it didn't.

22 Q Okay. In fact, the loss of this matter here, this 23 financial loss, was borne by my client; isn't that true?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q We're done with that.

1 Now, we heard some recordings from some of the folks who
2 interacted with my client here, and I also heard your lawyer
3 in opening statement speak to that your company, Nationstar,
4 always acted in good faith, never intended to harm anybody.
5 Right? That's your position?

6 A Our intentions were -- were good. We misinterpreted the 7 facts, the facts on the case.

8 Q Okay. And Ms. May was very upset in some of those 9 recordings; would you agree?

10 A Absolutely.

11 Q Okay. And she told -- Ms. May told Ms. Agyeman that 12 she'd made every one of those payments, didn't she?

13 A She did so, and she did so professionally.

14 Q Okay. And did Ms. Agyeman, after that moment, have an 15 honest belief that Ms. May owed the five months that were 16 being claimed as delinquent?

17 A I don't know if she thought it was owed or not.
18 Listening to that recording, she -- to me, when I heard it,
19 she ceased the communication side and went right to the 20 research side. She ceased asking her to pay it while the 21 research was done. She just simply made sure, "Did you send 22 it to research? Let me assist you to get this to research."
23 The communications did not feel to me like we're talking about 24 "You need to pay." It was all about "what we need to do to 25 research your situation to try to get it corrected."

1 Q You didn't hear the other representatives demanding five
2 months past due or telling her that she needed to get into a
3 modification or she'd be subject to further actions up to 4 foreclosure?

5 A You're saying words like "demanded." I heard, "My 6 account's showing you -- you're five months delinquent," and 7 Ms. May would say, "That's incorrect. That's not right. I'm 8 current. I've told you you're current. I've told you you're 9 current." Then the conversation would go to what we needed to 10 do for research. It seemed to always take on that same tone,
11 but I -- I -- I don't know if I missed something. I didn't 12 hear one of our people say, "You have to pay. I'm demanding
13 you pay. We're going to foreclose on you if you don't pay
14 this amount." I didn't -- I didn't hear those words.

15 Q Well, isn't that what happened? You did in fact seek to 16 foreclose on her house until the TRO was filed?

17 A The actions that we took were recognized like a default,
18 and it was scheduled for foreclosure, yes.

19 Q I mean, you wrote her a letter telling her she was in 20 default.

21 A We're required to. Under Fannie Mae guidelines, we have 22 to do that as her servicer.

23 Q We'll get into that. But the truth is you told her she 24 was in default, right?

25 A We did.

1 Q And you didn't know whether or not she was in default,
2 did you? Because she said, "I'm not," and nobody ever
3 followed up to figure it out?

4 A That's not necessarily true.

5 Q Okay. Who figured it out and when?

6 A When she got the default letter --

7 Q Who figured it out and when?

8 A If you look at the notes, when Paul Muller, shortly after 9 the transaction up at the end of March -- I think it was 10 April 27th of 2013. It was about 35 days after -- after that.
11 It's been reviewed. It goes to the bankruptcy group, and 12 there's a directive to Paul Muller to correct and bring the 13 account current and remove those charges. To me, that's 14 someone in the bankruptcy group recognizing the situation and 15 doing the appropriate adjustments.

16 Q And so everybody who made a contact to Ms. May should 17 have had access to that information, right? I mean, the 18 company knew that the money wasn't owed, true? After he 19 figured it out?

20 A I'm sorry. Repeat the question.

21 Q The company knew --

22 A The fact that she didn't owe the money --

23 Q The company knew, had figured it out that -- that Ms. May 24 was not, in fact, past due?

25 A I can't answer yes or no because when Muller did that

1 transaction he thought he brought her current for that period
2 of time. The -- the other letters that came out after that
3 were months later. So Muller wouldn't know after that date if 4 she would have kept paying current or not.

5 Q I guess the disconnect here is I'm talking about
6 Nationstar, the company. I mean there's no -- there is no
7 Mr. Nationstar, I assume, right?

8 A There was -- there was disclosure to us that came through 9 Paul Muller that was aware there was an error, and Paul was to 10 address it, which would have corrected the error.

11 Q Nationstar is a corporation, right?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q It has people that work for it?

14 A Correct.

15 Q It's owned by investors? Hedge funds --

16 A That's correct.

17 Q -- and other private folks? Is that right?

18 MR. TILLOTSON: Objection to the witness' lack of 19 foundation as to --

20 Q (By Mr. Humphreys) Do you know --

21 THE COURT: Sustained.

22 MR. HUMPHREYS: Do you know if -- do you know if 23 Fortress Capital, a hedge fund, owns more than half of 24 Nationstar?

25 MR. TILLOTSON: Objection. Relevance, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Sustained.

2 Q (By Mr. Humphreys) In any event, the company hires people
3 to work for it through the Board of Directors, right? I mean,
4 there's a Board of Directors.

5 A Are you talking about the executives at Nationstar, or 6 are you talking about bankruptcy representatives?

7 Q Well, we'll get there. There's a Board of Directors at 8 Nationstar; is that true?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And the Board of Directors hires the President and some 11 other key executives, right?

12 A They appoint them and select them, yes.

13 Q Okay. And those folks hire their senior staff?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q Which would include you?

16 A Correct.

17 Q All right. And then folks in your range, they hire
18 everybody else in the company, right?

19 A Everyone has a supervisor or somebody to report to.
20 Either they're doing the hiring or their supervisor is doing
21 the hiring.

22 Q Okay. But there is no Mr. Nationstar; there is no one
23 person that is Nationstar, right?

24 A I consider myself to be Nationstar.

25 Q Okay.

1 A As my role, I'm part of the company. I take it serious.

2 Q I'm not saying you don't take it serious. What I'm
3 saying is that the company can only act through people like
4 you and the other folks that we've heard from here in this 5 case, right?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q And so you've got to have a system in place that if one
8 person knows something it's got to be available to everybody
9 who's going to take action on a particular borrower's loan
10 file; isn't that true?

11 A Repeat that question because I -- I'd have to say no.

12 Q Yeah. If the corporation knows information about a 13 particular loan, it has a responsibility to communicate that 14 information or make it available to anyone who takes action on 15 a particular borrower's file; isn't that true?

16 A No, that's not true.

17 Q Okay.

18 A You would have situations where, say, someone was in 19 bankruptcy or they're deceased and we're doing property
20 preservation because the property is abandoned. Our property
21 preservation group wouldn't need to know that the person was 22 deceased or they were bankrupt. They would need to only know
23 that the property is vacant and they need to secure it, and 24 that would be their role from the company. So it would be --
25 I guess the best way to answer your question -- if it's

1 relevant to what you're doing in your job to service that
2 loan, you need to know.

3 Q Okay. I think we agree on that.

4 A Yes.

5 Q Okay. So -- so the company does have an obligation to 6 find ways to communicate with its folks so that if someone's
7 taking action on a file, if there's something important like,
8 say, her bills are paid and she's current, wouldn't everybody
9 in the company who takes action against her need to know that?

10 A They would need to know how to get the information or 11 where they need to direct the customer to with her issue.

12 Q Right. And it didn't happen here, did it?

13 A Yes and no.

14 Q Well --

15 A They sent it to research. There was evidence that 16 research did review it and that they attempted to do the fix
17 that Paul Muller would have done. If that fix takes, we have 18 no problem, but it didn't take. We did review it in research,
19 though. That's how Paul got the account to do the correction
20 because it got escalated to the head of bankruptcy who put 21 notes on the account to bring the account current. That 22 should have fixed it.

23 Q Okay. And now, Ms. May told Nationstar repeatedly -- the 24 people she spoke with -- that she was current, had paid all of 25 her obligations to Nationstar; isn't that right?

1 A That's correct.

2 Q And is there anything more she could have done with --
3 with communicating with Nationstar?

4 A I was -- in 30 years, I was truly impressed with her
5 ability to stay as composed as she did and on topic and try to 6 continue to give us information. I have no fault for the way
7 she conducted. The only thing I said in my deposition. I
8 wish she would have demanded to speak to a vice president, at 9 least someone higher than the individuals she was talking to,
10 but I'm not faulting her for that. We're responsible to know
11 the escalations to the vice president. She doesn't need to 12 know that, but she was an excellent customer. She handled
13 this problem exactly the way I would hope a customer would 14 address it, to give us the better opportunity to fix it.

15 Q Well, wasn't she told, according to what we heard on the 16 recordings, repeatedly that she was assured that they would 17 get their managers involved and they would be involved in it;
18 they would look into it?

19 A They did.

20 Q She was told that?

21 A Yeah, the managers did look into it.

22 Q So you think she still should have demanded to speak to a
23 manager even though she was told?

24 A No, I'm not -- I don't want you to think that I want her
25 to do anything. She did everything I would have expected. I

1 would have rather expected our people to escalate it up above
2 a manager. I'm holding our people accountable, not Ms. May,
3 for this.

4 MR. HUMPHREYS: Let's go to Exhibit 40. It's a
5 letter. Your Honor, I think this is not objected to. Is that
6 right?

7 THE COURT: Got it.

8 MR. HUMPHREYS: No objection?

9 THE COURT: Exhibit 40?

10 MR. TILLOTSON: I don't believe I've -- that's right.
11 I don't believe I've objected. If I have, I withdraw it.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Got it. Thank you.

13 MR. TILLOTSON: No problem.

14 Q (By Mr. Humphreys) So let me direct your attention, if I
15 could, to Exhibit 40. Is that a letter that Ms. May sent to 16 Nationstar in August of 2013?

17 A I'm looking at the one August 21st, 2013, identified as a
18 qualified written request.

19 Q Okay. And did she have some pretty specific questions if 20 you look at page 2 there? And by the way, you've seen this 21 letter before, right?

22 A I have, but I'd still like to review to make sure that 23 I'm seeing the same document.

24 Q All right. Let's give you a chance to do that then.

25 Let's give him the first page. Do you want to read the whole

1 thing?

2 A I'll read it quickly.

3 Q Okay.

4 A Okay.

5 Q Page up.

6 A Page up. Okay. If you could page up, please.

7 Q So did Nationstar treat this letter as a qualified
8 written request?

9 A I would have to see our transaction history.

10 Q Okay. You don't know?

11 A Not off the top of my head because I did see notations
12 that we did receive a qualified written request. I just want
13 to make sure is it recognizing this one.

14 Q Okay.

15 A It would be in the communication, collections
16 communication history.

17 Q Okay. Nationstar did receive this, right? Do you know
18 if they received this letter?

19 A Yes, I remember reading it.

20 Q Okay. And she raised her questions clear and to the 21 point, right? She made her dispute known to Nationstar?

22 A Yes. I -- I understand her questions.

23 Q Okay. And she asked two questions. "Where do you come
24 up with the $6,300 balance?" And two, "How come you raised my 25 payments almost $1,000 a month, $999.45," right?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. And do you recall Nationstar's response to that?
3 Exhibit 41.

4 A I need to see the transaction history and the exhibit.

5 Q Okay. So this letter, on its face, says -- on September
6 3rd -- this Plaintiff 41 -- that it's a response to the 7 August 21st, 2013 letter we just looked at, right?

8 A I'm sorry. So you're showing me the letter that we sent 9 back?

10 Q Yeah. I'm showing you that that says it's a response.

11 A Well, I thought you asked me if we responded to it. You
12 have the letter.

13 Q I'm asking, yeah, if you knew.

14 A Yeah. I just want to make sure that I'm on the same time
15 frame that you're in because there was qualified written
16 requests that occurred at a later time. I just want to make 17 sure before I answer that I'm answering to the correct moment
18 in time.

19 Q Okay. So as of September 3rd, 2013, did Nationstar write
20 this letter responding to my client's August 21st, 2013
21 request for information?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. Let's roll through the letter there. And is this 24 a form letter? The response.

25 A Not necessarily. I mean there's -- I've seen different

1 written -- qualified written requests.

2 Q Okay.

3 A Some could be "I need insurance policies." You know,
4 there could be other things. "I need an appraisal." There
5 could be other things in a QWR.

6 Q Okay.

7 A This is -- this is about she's looking for accounting,
8 she's looking for escrow analysis, validation of why she's 9 being billed what she's being billed.

10 Q Is there more than one form letter? Is that what you're 11 saying, depending on what the nature of the dispute is?

12 A Based on the nature of the dispute.

13 Q Okay. And is the form letter here when someone asks
14 about the payment history to -- to send a form letter with 15 this information in it?

16 A Let me read it.

17 Q That's up to you. Do you need to read it to answer my 18 question?

19 A Yes. I'd like to see what's on the bottom of the letter.

20 Q Okay. Okay.

21 A You can page down again. And if you could page down some 22 more.

23 MR. TILLOTSON: Your Honor, if I may interrupt, if I
24 may approach, could I just hand him a copy? It may help.

25 THE COURT: Yeah, that might help.

1 MR. TILLOTSON: May I approach?

2 THE COURT: Sure.

3 MR. TILLOTSON: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: Thanks.

5 MR. TILLOTSON: It's also marked VV, but it's the 6 same document. Thank you.

7 MR. HUMPHREYS: Thank you.

8 Q (By Mr. Humphreys) Let's go back up. Right there. So
9 tell me when you're done looking through the letter, the 10 response letter, September 3rd, Exhibit 41.

11 A Can I see the letter again, so I can just review her
12 questions one more time before I answer?

13 Q Okay.

14 MR. WALLACE: Is it okay if I approach, Your Honor, 15 just to give a copy?

16 THE COURT: Yes, yes.

17 Q (By Mr. Humphreys) Let's go back to -- don't worry about 18 that. Just make it full-size. So now you've had a chance to 19 look at that. Could you show the Jury where -- in Exhibit
20 42 -- where Nationstar told her -- explain where Nationstar
21 explained how they got to the past-due balance of $6,382?

22 A They're showing that in the transaction history.

23 Q Show me where in the transaction history you see that at.
24 Is this the transaction history that's up on the screen?

25 A Yeah, but it's sideways.

1 Q Is that the way it was sent to her?

2 A Are you asking me did we send it to her sideways?

3 Q Yeah.

4 A I don't know. I don't know if we emailed it or --

5 Q I mean, is that the way they produced it to her? I mean,
6 you're not complaining, are you, that it's hard to read?

7 A I thought it was mailed out.

8 Q I mean, did they mail -- was the transaction history sent
9 to her printed off sideways?

10 A It's not something I looked at, but when you print off
11 our printers, it does print straight up and down. If it came 12 sideways, it's a printed document; she could have just turned 13 it.

14 Q Okay. So maybe it was just turned over in litigation to 15 us sideways because you see the stamps are on the bottom.
16 Anyway, that's not a huge deal. Anyway, the transaction
17 history shows where you explained to Ms. May how she was 6,300
18 and some dollars past due?

19 A Before I answer this, just so I'm on the same page with 20 you, is she inquiring why she's past due at or about the time
21 of August 21st, 2013?

22 Q Well, I'm just asking you to answer my question.

23 A Because she's talking about 2012, 2012.

24 THE COURT: Why don't we do this. Here's what's on 25 the table. What is on the table is a letter written by the

1 Plaintiff to your company asking two questions. The question
2 this attorney is asking you was where in your response did --
3 was that question answered. I don't really know what more we
4 need to know. Does it show it? And if it isn't there, it
5 isn't there. If it's there, show us. Is that the only
6 attachment to this letter? Is that it?

7 MR. HUMPHREYS: No.

8 THE COURT: So there's additional attachments?

9 MR. HUMPHREYS: Yes, Your Honor. There's a copy of 10 the note --

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. HUMPHREYS: -- and the mortgage.

13 THE COURT: But this is the only attachment that 14 deals with the finances of the loan?

15 MR. HUMPHREYS: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. So the answer is what?

17 MR. TILLOTSON: I'm sorry, Your Honor. I'm sorry.
18 There's two attachments. There's one for Citi, and there's 19 one for us.

20 THE COURT: Got it.

21 MR. TILLOTSON: Interspersed between the note, just 22 so we're all on the same page.

23 THE COURT: Yeah. Okay. I don't mean to be 24 confusing. I'm just trying to get an answer to the question
25 so we can move on.

1 MR. HUMPHREYS: Thank you.

2 THE COURT: And the answer is?

3 A Well, my --

4 THE COURT: The question is: Where is it? I mean,
5 I'm not trying to argue. I'm just trying to get the answer,
6 so we can move on to the next issue. Where is it answered?

7 A She sent it on August 21st, 2013. She says, "as of now,"
8 so I'm interpreting that as of now, August 21st, 2013, she's 9 delinquent, and we sent her -- we sent her all transactions
10 that would be included. From what I have here, the answer
11 would be "no" because I don't see where we sent the pay
12 histories that would address the area that she was talking
13 about in August of 2013.

14 Q (By Mr. Humphreys) Essentially, you sent her a form
15 letter with a bunch of materials printed off -- a copy of the 16 note, a copy of the mortgage, and a copy of the payment
17 history -- and told her to take a look at it for herself and,
18 you know, figure it out. Right?

19 A Yeah. We should have -- we should have included the 20 escrow analysis because she was asking for the escrow
21 adjustments, and we should have had the payments that went all
22 the way through the date of her letter, which is not there.

23 Q There's no explanation in there about why she owes the 24 money that you said at Nationstar that she did owe; is that 25 true?

1 A That -- that would be true.

2 Q Okay.

3 A Based on what I'm reviewing.

4 Q And has that policy changed -- the sending out form
5 letters to people with payment histories attached to them,
6 notes, and mortgages? Has that process been changed?

7 A We do -- like I said at the beginning, we do all types of 8 qualified written requests. Some customers just want
9 qualified written requests for their mortgage and their note
10 or the appraisal. It depends on what the request is.

11 Q So it sounds like you believe it's a good process and it
12 continues through today.

13 A No. What I say is: Answer the customer's inquiry. If 14 they want to know and want their records, answer them. Don't 15 template anything. Treat it as an individual situation. What 16 are they asking for, and what are you delivering? Are they 17 satisfied, or they're not satisfied, and it gives them an 800
18 number to call.

19 Q Okay. Let's take a look at another one of these. Let's
20 pull up 106. Is that a March 10th, 2010 letter from Jeannie
21 May to Nationstar?

22 Can I get you to --

23 A Yes, yes.

24 Q Could you commit to that one?

25 Okay. Now, I won't make you go through all the letter

1 because -- just in the interest of time here, but she has a
2 lot of narrative information here. At the end, she asks two
3 questions again.

4 "Please explain in full how you arrived at a past-due
5 balance at this time of $13,846.80?"

6 And "Please explain your increase in my monthly payment?"

7 Do you see those two questions asked?

8 A Bear with me for a second. I understand your questions.

9 Q Okay. And she's attaching information, including
10 information, monthly payment histories from Nationstar and her 11 proof that she was current when she exited the bankruptcy in 12 January?

13 A Can you page those up?

14 Q Okay. Yeah. You don't have to commit to too much. I'm 15 just asking you to say did she send information with it.
16 That's good enough. We can move on if you'd agree to that.

17 Okay. Then let's take a look at Exhibit 107. Is that a 18 letter the same date, March 10th, 2014, essentially by an 19 amendment by Ms. May to her earlier letter of the same day?
20 She's saying here that "I told you in my first letter that --
21 that Nationstar did accept my Check 1019 for my March 1, 2014
22 payment," but she had discovered it wasn't cashed. She's 23 notifying you of that at Nationstar?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay. And then if you roll over to -- let's go to

1 Exhibit 108. And is that a letter from Nationstar, dated
2 March 19th, 2014, in the first paragraph saying, "It is a
3 response to your correspondence dated March 10th, 2014, which 4 concerns the above-referenced account that were brought to our 5 attention"?

6 A Can you page up?

7 Q I mean, I'm just asking you to identify it.

8 A Yes.

9 Q Okay. And who was the letter mailed to? Who was this 10 letter that Jeannie May sent -- who was it mailed back to?

11 A David Gunn.

12 Q That was the prior bankruptcy attorney that had 13 represented her in the 13, right?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Okay. And that's on March 19th, 2014. They're saying on 16 that they'll get back with her within 30 business days except 17 where otherwise required by state law, essentially, just 18 telling her that they received the letter and will be in 19 touch?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And then if you could put up 109, Plaintiff's 109.

22 That's, essentially, the same letter? Well, let me ask it a
23 different way, make it easier on you here. This is a letter
24 from De'Marco Jefferson at Nationstar to Jeannie May this 25 time, at her address in Overland, Maryland, right? Missouri?

1 A Yes.

2 Q And this one's dated April 24th, and they're asking for a
3 little bit more time because the bankruptcy department is 4 verifying information?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And we have her single point of contact at this time is 7 Derrick Richardson, right?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q He was noted as the manager on the file who was reviewing 10 it for the three months over the summer, right?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q And is that the guy you spoke with, the gentleman you
13 spoke with -- Mr. Richardson?

14 A I did speak with him, yes.

15 Q Okay. And he's the manager of the bankruptcy department?

16 A He's the manager in loss mitigation.

17 Q Okay.

18 A When I interviewed him.

19 Q Okay. And then if we can take a look at Plaintiff 110.

20 Is that a letter dated May 8th, 2014, from Nationstar,
21 same gentleman, Mr. De'Marco Jefferson, to Ms. May?

22 A Yes. That was our response. What was the date on that 23 at the top?

24 Q May 8th, 2014. Do you see that?

25 A Okay. I'm trying to remember --

1 Q Do you see that?

2 A Yes, I do. I was trying to remember the date that she
3 first sent her request in. How many days that --

4 Q It was on March 10th.

5 A March 10th. Okay.

6 Q And this May 8th letter here from Mr. Jefferson says, "We
7 want to confirm that we did receive your bankruptcy
8 information and the account was placed into active bankruptcy
9 status," and that's dated May 8th, 2014. Isn't that what 10 Nationstar is telling my client?

11 A Okay.

12 Q Is that what he said?

13 A Yeah, it seems like he's putting a bankruptcy hold on it.

14 Q Okay. "We received your bankruptcy information, and the 15 account was placed into active bankruptcy status." What does 16 that mean at Nationstar?

17 A Well, he's putting it in active bankruptcy status because 18 he's doing these bankruptcy adjustments. So it's not -- it's 19 only in the status so that he can do the adjustments. It's 20 not -- it doesn't mean the bankruptcy case is still open.
21 He's trying to reconcile those bankruptcy transactions that 22 were -- that occurred in error. So he's putting it in the 23 bankruptcy status so it doesn't -- all the other departments
24 don't get confused. He's going to do the transactions and 25 then take it out of bankruptcy status when he's completed.

1 Q Okay. In the paragraph above that, he's talking about
2 the 5,100 and some dollars that Nationstar took off of her
3 account, right?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q And he's saying that $3,600 of it, approximately, is 6 being applied to her delinquent payments?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q They weren't delinquent payments, were they?

9 A They weren't delinquent payments as it related to 10 Ms. May. They were delinquent payments as they related to our 11 accounting were showing them as delinquent. So he's posting
12 them to those accounts, but I don't want to mislead. They 13 were never -- she was never delinquent. What he's referring 14 to her -- he's applying to the arrearage of our ledger.

15 Q Okay. So there's a difference between being delinquent
16 and having payments applied to delinquent -- having your money
17 applied to delinquent payments?

18 A Yeah. The payments as they were shown in our ledger are 19 showing delinquent. They weren't delinquent, but until we 20 clear those with postings and bring the account current,
21 they're going to continue to populate delinquent.

22 Q Okay. And there's $1,534 approximately being applied to 23 corporate advances. What -- what corporate advances was 24 Nationstar paying itself?

25 A I don't recall where that money was adjusted.

1 Q Is that part of the money that should have been written
2 off in the bankruptcy?

3 A I -- I don't know.

4 Q Okay.

5 A When I reviewed this account --

6 Q And the -- the -- to be clear here, this letter is dated
7 May 8th of 2014. This is months after she had to sue to stop
8 the foreclosure, right?

9 A I understand that, but I also --

10 Q Is that true -- what I said?

11 A She had to file a restraining order, yes.

12 Q The whole thing, that this letter is being sent on 13 May 8th, 2014, which is months after she had to sue to stop
14 the foreclosure?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q You were going to say something else.

17 A I said when I looked at the reconciliation of it, I
18 noticed in November of 2014 that her account was totally 19 current, there was no additional charges, and she was in the 20 contractual status of what she should be, and I -- I don't --
21 I don't see any other situations outstanding with her account.
22 I reviewed it even today. I have no legal fees. I have no
23 late charges. I have no corporate advances. Nothing is on 24 her account but just her principal and interest and escrow,
25 and she's due for December. There's no -- nothing

1 outstanding.

2 Q Okay. I was trying to get to what you were telling her
3 as of the date of this letter in May of 2014, and you're 4 telling her that her account is due for October 1, 2013, in 5 May of 2014. So is that right?

6 A So I'm sorry. Repeat that same question.

7 Q Yeah. You're -- Nationstar -- not you, but Nationstar is 8 telling her on October 1st, 2013 -- excuse me. In May of 9 2014, you're telling her that she's due all the way back into 10 the fall of '13, October 1, 2013, right?

11 A When we -- when we completed all the transactions on 12 that, the account, I believe, was four payments past due.
13 There was already monies sitting to be posted on the account.
14 There was a correspondence from Mr. Healey that happened in 15 October of 2014, and the only thing that was left on that 16 account -- it was due for November of 2014 in October. So
17 everything was reconciled between that period of time in May 18 and October and November because the only thing that was left
19 was to give Ms. May access online so that she could make her
20 payments.

21 Q So I missed one part of this letter that you wrote her.
22 Nationstar did in May of 2014. The sale date for her home was 23 stopped due to the automatic stay of the bankruptcy. That's 24 what Nationstar is telling Ms. May in May of 2014, right?

25 A I'm sorry. What -- where are you looking at? Are you

1 looking at the letter or transaction?

2 THE COURT: It's underlined in red.

3 MR. HUMPHREYS: Yeah, that part.

4 A Anytime you have a bankruptcy code on the account, it's
5 going to stop the foreclosure.

6 Q (By Mr. Humphreys) All right. Let's go to 111, please.
7 Is that another letter Ms. May sent -- May 24th, 2014, this
8 time -- to Nationstar?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And we can see by the control stamps on the bottom that 11 Nationstar received this letter because it produced it back to 12 us, right?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And she's saying that she wants it to be treated as a 15 request for information and notice of error. Right? Is that 16 right?

17 A Yes. Can I just see the date?

18 Q Sure. It's May 24th, 2014. Do you see it?

19 A Okay.

20 Q Okay. I'm not going to go through all the contents of 21 it. I'll leave that to the Jury later if they choose to do
22 that. Exhibit 111. But there's paragraph after paragraph
23 here of information Ms. May is providing, right?

24 Do you remember my question?

25 A I apologize. I was reading the letter.

1 Q Okay. I won't go through every paragraph of this, but
2 there's quite a bit of requests for -- there's quite a bit of 3 information being provided, and then she ends the letter by 4 saying, "I expect all of my requests, including this letter,
5 to be honored." That's what she wrote on this May 24, 2014
6 letter.

7 Do you see that at the end of the letter there, where
8 she's saying, "I expect all my requests to be honored"?

9 A Yes, I do.

10 Q Okay. And then if I could have you take a look at 11 Plaintiff 112. A week later, June 2nd, 2014, Nationstar
12 responds. Again, it's Mr. De'Marco Jefferson, down in Irving, 13 Texas. He's saying in the second paragraph there, "We have 14 forwarded your request to our legal department, who will be 15 handling your request accordingly." Right?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And I don't see a response to this letter. Have you ever
18 identified one in your investigation of this file, this 19 matter?

20 A I would have to look at our transaction history to see if 21 one was out there. I don't recall, but I affirm if it's in 22 the transaction log, I would address it there if it was sent 23 out.

24 Q Okay. Let's take -- take a look at Exhibit -- Exhibit
25 47. Is that a letter dated December 19th, 2013, from Bob

1 Healey to Nationstar or -- excuse me -- to your lawyers,
2 Martin, Leigh, Laws & Fritzlen?

3 A Yes.

4 Q "Attention: Foreclosure Department"? Is that right?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Over in Kansas City?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And he's writing the law -- that's Nationstar's law firm,
9 right?

10 A They're doing work for Nationstar through Fannie Mae. It
11 has to be -- law firms have to be approved by Fannie Mae to be 12 used for their portfolio.

13 Q Okay. Okay. There's been some discussion of Fannie Mae
14 in this case. I want to clear one thing up here. Do Fannie
15 Mae guidelines require you at Nationstar to properly account
16 for borrower funds that have been paid over to you? Does
17 Fannie Mae guidelines -- there's been some discussion about 18 their expectations, their requirements, their guidelines.

19 Simple question: Does Fannie Mae expect Nationstar to 20 properly account for borrower funds?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And did you do that here?

23 A Not in a very timely manner.

24 Q Did anybody at Fannie Mae ever tell Nationstar they 25 needed to foreclose on Ms. May?

1 A Did anybody at Fannie Mae tell Ms. May?

2 Q Tell Nationstar that they needed to foreclose on 3 Ms. May's home?

4 A It's -- it's -- the directive is given to us in our
5 agreements with Fannie Mae as the servicer. The servicer
6 conducts itself -- those functions -- through the agreement.
7 It's not an individual loan basis where it says, "Go ahead and 8 do this on this." You're responsible that if it's this part
9 delinquent, then you proceed. If it's in a modification
10 status, you do not proceed. If it's in bankruptcy, you do not
11 proceed. There's stops on them if -- when you can foreclose
12 and when you cannot foreclose.

13 Q So no? So "no is your answer?

14 A I don't understand the question because we act on behalf
15 of Fannie Mae as the servicer. Fannie Mae does not service
16 their loans. We do for them.

17 Q Okay. And is there a person at Fannie Mae that you can 18 tell this Jury about who's the one that said, "Take this 19 lady's home"?

20 A It's -- it's -- it's the agreement that we have with 21 Fannie Mae. It's part of -- we're required to post her
22 payments. We're required to do her escrow. And granted,
23 there was a lot of errors here. It's no doubt. But we are 24 the party that is accountable. We are a servicer. We make
25 mistakes. We made a lot of them here, and I'm -- I take it

1 very personal. I'm addressing everything I possibly can so
2 things never happen again, but as far as our relationship with
3 the investor, we are the investor as it relates to Fannie Mae
4 as the servicer. We don't own the loan. We don't receive the 5 income from the loan. We are -- but we do act in their shoes
6 as the servicer and represent them from a standing
7 perspective.

8 Q Okay. And they pay you to do that?

9 A Yes, they do.

10 Q And you agree to do certain things like properly account
11 for her funds? That's -- you have other obligations as well;
12 is that true?

13 A For every customer, right.

14 Q And there was some testimony you gave earlier about being 15 a Five STAR Fannie Mae servicer? Is that right?

16 A Yes.

17 Q What does it take to be a Four STAR servicer?

18 A The Five STAR servicer, I can tell you. I've never been 19 a Four STAR servicer, so I don't know what the criteria is for 20 that.

21 Q Okay.

22 A Five STAR servicer -- your strongest attributes that 23 they're evaluating you is your ability to find workouts for 24 homeowners who are losing their homes. It's a big driver on 25 the home affordability modifications. That's what really

1 drives your score. How many homeowners can you save from
2 foreclosure?

3 Q Do you feel like you did that for Ms. May, that you
4 performed Five STAR service for her under Fannie Mae's
5 protocols?

6 A No.

7 Q Okay. And in fact, what you did to Ms. May -- was Fannie
8 Mae even aware of that, so that they could consider it when it
9 came time for them to give you five stars?

10 A It's evaluated on our entire performance. We service two 11 and a half million loans.

12 Q Yeah. So it would be part of a data submission, I
13 assume, a large data submission -- whatever happened to her?

14 Well, let me ask you this. Has anybody at Fannie Mae
15 seen any of the testimony that's been developed in this case
16 and presented to this Jury?

17 A No, they haven't.

18 Q Okay. So let's go back to Exhibit 47 here.

19 THE COURT: You know what? Before you get into that,
20 we're going to take a break for the evening, unless you -- I
21 don't want to rush you. You're not close to -- are you close
22 to being done? If you are --

23 MR. HUMPHREYS: Yeah, there's a credit reporting
24 issue, but I'm just about done with the correspondence. So it
25 might be wise to take a break, and I'll wrap it up in --

1 THE COURT: Yeah, we'll do that.

2 MR. HUMPHREYS: -- 20 minutes in the morning, Your 3 Honor.

4 THE COURT: Yeah, we'll do that. You can step down.
5 Thank you.

6 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and gentlemen, again,
8 you're instructed not to discuss the case. Don't form or 9 express any opinions about the case. Don't let anyone discuss
10 the case in your presence. We'll try to start at 9:00
11 tomorrow morning. If you all can be here before quarter to, 12 that would be helpful. Thank you.
